COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Saturday June 12, 11am. Arts in Foggy Bottom Outdoor Sculpture Exhibit Artist-led Tour

Location: Meet at corner of New Hampshire and I Street, NW

Sculptor Paula Stone will lead the tour through the 15 pieces of sculptures located at the Foggy Bottom Historic District

Paula and her husband, Seth Goldstein, started making sculptures out of Oriental Bittersweet vines after becoming certified Weed Warriors. While cutting down non-native invasive species from threatened trees in parklands, they became fascinated by the twists, shapes and helixes of this vine. On view is one of their pieces, Vinesque.

Thursday, June 3rd, 6:30pm. Jeffrey C. Hooke will discuss and sign the new edition of his book: "Security Analysis and Business: A Comprehensive Guide to Today's Valuation Methods

Local author, Jeff Hooke, discusses the state of corporate stock valuation, the failure of market participants to learn from the two recent crashes, and how thoughtful research can help you avoid the next debacle. Hooke worked six years at the World Bank and now serves middle-market companies with advisory services regarding mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance and valuationas the Managing Director of a corporate finance consulting practice based in McLean, Virginia.

FOGGY BOTTOM ASSOCIATION is Sponsoring a Cruise on the Potomac River – June 10, 5pm

The Foggy Bottom Association (FBA) has made arrangements for a cruise on Capitol River Cruises' ship Nightingale. The ship departs Washington Harbor, Georgetown, at 31st and K Street, NW (end of 31st on the water) and the cruise lasts 55 minutes. Participants should plan on arriving at the dock at 4:50p.m.

Join your fellow FBA members and discover the most spectacular view of Washington from the Potomac River as the ship passes the Kennedy Center, Memorial Bridge, the Lincoln Memorial, etc.

There is a bar on board and you can purchase soft drinks, water, beer, cocktails, etc.

The cruise is free to members of The Foggy Bottom Association which has purchased tickets for its membership. However, there are a limited number of tickets so reservations are required. Those interested should contact Jackie Lemire at 337-2167 or jglemire@aol.com. Please provide your name and telephone number.
